Current social networks don't have great tools for dispute resolution. They're a combination of anarchy (people yelling) and tyranny (arbitrarily deplatforming).

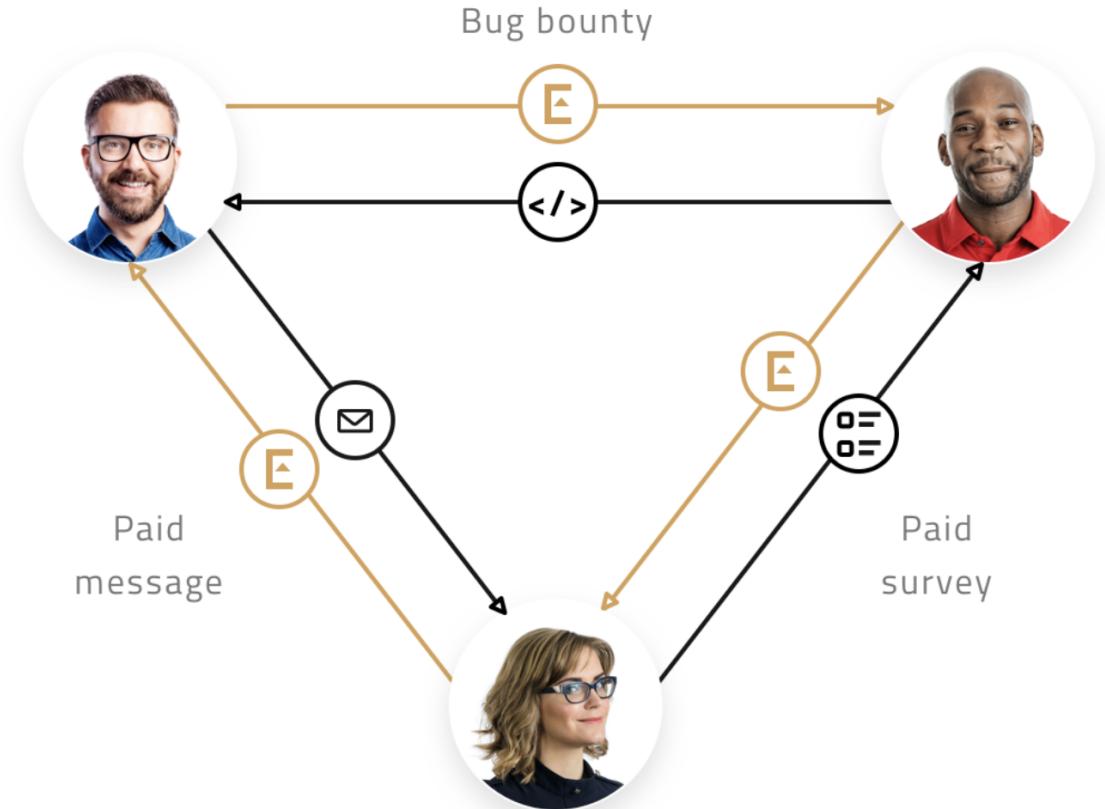

An alternative approach is a global moderator hierarchy. In the event of a dispute, the lowest common ancestor mediates.

Lowest Common Ancestor for Node 9 and Node 11 is Node 2

CONGRESS, JULY 4, DECLARATION BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them; a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that they warn themselves against sudden Changes; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Evils may increase, than to right themselves by abolishing the Forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such a Government, and to provide for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which Rendereth it Indispensable to a Change.

The History of the present King of Great-Britain is a History of repeated Assaillants upon the Publick Peace of America; of frequent Invasion of their Frontiers, and Insults unexampled and unmitigated; of their having飞
Establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. To prove this, let Facts be submitted to a candid World.

He has refused Laws of immediate and pressing Importance, unless suspended in their Operation till his Assent should be obtained; or, if denied by his Assembly, he has either neglected to attend to them, or has abusively postponed their Laws for the Accommodation of large Districts of People, until those People would relinquish every Right, in order to bear the Oppression and Injustice of their Miserable Condition.

He has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly Firmness his Invasions on the Rights of the People; at a Time, after such Dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Executing his Measures,

FRENZIED ENTHUSIASM IN BOMBAY

Crowds In Festive Mood

The national flag was hoisted over the 74-year-old Bombay Club, Governor at midnight when the citizens of Bombay gathered the dawn of independence with intense rejoicing.

"Citizens of free India—yes, we are now free!"—said the Prime Minister, Mr. B. G. Khera, in raising the flag at the midnight ceremony, which was attended by all Ministers and departmental heads and the members of the Constituted Assembly Government.

His declaration was greeted with cheer from the thousands who had assembled to witness the ceremony.

At 12 o'clock sharp, Lord Mountbatten, the last viceroy, with the president of the Constituted Assembly, Dr. D. B. Wadia, and other members of the government, went to the roof of the building to witness the ceremony.

They were joined by the Governor General, Sir John Cowdray, and other guests.

When the flag was hoisted through the building's windows, a shout of "Hooray" went up from the crowd.

Lord Mountbatten then addressed the people, "The hour has come when India has become a nation. The Constituted Assembly has declared India independent. Our task is to see that they get the right way or wrong road".

He said that India had to take care of its own affairs.

Then and there were not only parades but also processions of all kinds.

Everyone cheered and the spirit of the people was high.

Lord Mountbatten said, "We have to help India in every way possible through the next few years".
