Current social networks don't have great tools for dispute resolution. They're a combination of anarchy (people yelling) and tyranny (arbitrarily deplatforming).

An alternative approach is a global moderator hierarchy. In the event of a dispute, the lowest common ancestor mediates.

CONGRESS, JULY 4, DECLARATION BY THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA GENERAL CONGRESS ASSEMBLED

When in the Course of human Events, it becomes necessary for one People to dissolve the Political Bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the Powers of the Earth, the separate and equal Station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them; a decent Respect to the Opinions of Mankind requires that they should declare the Separation.

We hold these Truths to be self-evident, that all Men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its Foundation on such Principles, and organizing its Powers in such Form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that they warn themselves against sudden Changes; and accordingly all Experience hath shewn, that Mankind are more disposed to suffer, while Evils may be insidious, than to suffer Smartly, because the Cure would be worse than the Disease. But when a long Train of Abuses and Usurpations, evinces a Design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their Right, it is their Duty, to throw off such a Government, and to provide for their future Security. Such has been the patient Sufferance of these Colonies; and such is now the Necessity which Rendereth it Indispensable to a Change.

The History of the present King of Great-Britain is a History of repeated Assaillants upon the Legislative Powers of these Colonies. He has endeavoured to bring into Executive Commission, Laws for the Accommodation of large Districts of People, which those People would not bear, and which were un estimable to them, and formidable to Tyrants only. He has dissolved Representative Bodies at Places unusual, uncomfortable, and distant from the Depository of their public Records, in order to prevent the People from exercising their Right of suffrage; he has dissolved Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly Firmness his Invasions on the Rights of the People; he has refused, for a long Time, after such Dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have exerted and maintained their Authority over a large Part of America, at the same time inforcing the People to submit to his Usurpations.
